

Friends of the Max Kade Institute—2012 Annual Meeting

Saturday, May 5, 2012

WATERTOWN, WISCONSIN

Join us for the Friends' Annual Meeting and an exploration of the fascinating history of Watertown and its early German settlers, many of whom were "Forty-Eighters" who had left the German states after the failed European revolutions of 1848–49. We will tour the Octagon House and America's first Kindergarten, opened by Margarethe Meyer Schurz. The annual meeting will be held at Lindberg's By the River Restaurant, a short walk from the Kindergarten, and will be followed by a German-style dinner and a presentation on "The German-Speaking 48ers of Watertown." Our speaker will be Professor Jeffrey Wallman, the son of Charles Wallman, author of the MKI publication with the same title.
