

Friends of the Max Kade Institute—2014 Annual Meeting

Saturday, May 10, 2014

JANESVILLE, WISCONSIN

We invite you to the 2014 Annual Meeting of the Friends of the Max Kade Institute in Janesville, a city at the crossroads of American history.

We will begin with a tour of the LINCOLN-TALLMAN HOUSE, a mansion constructed between 1855 and 1857. Until 1915, the house was occupied by the William Morrison Tallman family. In October of 1859, Abraham Lincoln stayed here after giving a series of speeches in Beloit and Janesville.

Please note two different tour-time options!

Our annual meeting and dinner will be held at the historic ARMORY, built in 1930 and listed on the National Register of Historic Places.

We will conclude our day with a PRESENTATION on “Living in an Anglo Community: German Americans in Janesville, Wisconsin” by Cora Lee Kluge, Professor of German at UW–Madison and MKI Co-Director.
